DBIA INDUSTRY PARTNER MEMBER BENEFITS

NETWORK

Market and direct more business to your firm through participation at our conferences, the DBIA website, and the Membership Directory. Meet with other leaders and owners who share the vision, benefits and value of design-build and integrated services.

INFORMATION & ADVOCACY

Discover leading Design-Build publications including Design-Build DATELINE magazine and specialized industry publications via our online bookstore. Learn of new projects coming up for bid using our E-Pipeline tool. Reach out to promote integrated services, educate owners, and inform legislators at the federal, state and local levels. Learn of laws being passed in your own state and see how they impact your project.

EDUCATION

Improve your employees' technical and business skills by taking part in DBIA's education tour. DBIA educational programs are practical "how to" courses about design-build with topics ranging from an introduction of design-build techniques to advanced application of design-build concepts. DBIA coursework also allows members to advance toward DBIA Professional Certification. As an industry partner firm employees will receive a discounted rate on all coursework and national and specialty conference registrations. Also take advantage of our industry partner discounts on customized organizational training.

MARKETING

As an industry partner your firm may use the DBIA logo and the statement "DBIA Industry Partner" on your firm's website and marketing material; receive a full listing with your firm logo and firm description in the annual membership directory as well as a website link from the DBIA website to your firm's website. On all exhibits, sponsorships, and advertising industry partners will receive the deepest discounts offered as well as a buy 2, get 1 free discount on advertisements in our Design-Build DATELINE magazine purchased over the course of 1 year. Each contact listed under your industry partnership will receive a complimentary subscription to DATELINE, a complimentary copy of the annual membership directory and access to state and local "Requests for Proposals" database (under the member's only section of website).

Design-Build is a burgeoning industry which today accounts for over 40 percent of all non-residential design and construction in the US-- and this growth curve shows no sign of slowing. As reported in a recent edition of Engineering News Record, design-build revenue has nearly doubled since 2004 increasing from just over $40 billion to nearly $85 billion in revenue in 2007.

DBIA is proud to be the voice of this industry of leaders in the design and construction fields who utilize design-build and integrated project delivery methods to achieve high performance projects.
