

Bringing Systems Responsibility to Light.

At Payne Sparkman, we are a “Systems Responsible” company. That means we are dedicated - from delivery to completion - to providing lighting systems that are fully integrated and perform as promised. Whether it is an arena, a school, or a laboratory, Payne Sparkman's expert staff works directly with project architects and engineers to ensure a brilliant success.

After all, what good are high-tech lighting controls if your supplier leaves you in the dark?
