

BUILDING A WORLD OF DIFFERENCE®

Integrated Project Delivery.

Black & Veatch is integrating engineering, procurement and construction to deliver innovative water and wastewater solutions for clients worldwide. We offer a full range of implementation strategies from firm price design-build contracting to negotiated open-book EPC and EPCM that complements our line of services including project planning, permitting, engineering, construction and commissioning. Our flexible terms, including lump sum, target price and guaranteed maximum price (GMP) contract formats, are adaptable to your project needs. The right tools. The right team. The right approach.
